The screenshot displays the Slido interface. On the left is a navigation sidebar with icons for a presentation, a poll, a chat, and a list of participants. The main area shows a presentation slide with a red header containing the text "The art of training". Below the header, the Slido logo is visible, followed by the text "Join at slido.com #lecture". The slide content asks, "How likely are you to recommend this training to your colleagues?". To the right, a poll results window is open, titled "Assigned interaction" and "Rating". It displays the question "How likely are you to recommend this training to your colleagues?" and a "Score: 4.9". Below this is a bar chart showing the distribution of responses: 0% for rating 1, 0% for rating 2, 14% for rating 3, 14% for rating 4, 43% for rating 5, and 29% for rating 6.

The image displays the Slido interface, which is used for interactive presentations. It is set against a background of a floral border with pink and blue flowers on a light beige background.

The interface is divided into three main sections:

- Left Panel: A vertical sidebar containing icons for document, presentation, bar chart, list, and other presentation tools.
- Central Slide: A presentation slide with an orange header that reads "Climate changes". Below the header, the Slido logo is visible, followed by the text "Join at slido.com #lecture". The main content of the slide is a question: "What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you hear 'Climate crisis?'".
- Right Panel: A mobile-style interface for interacting with the slide. It features the Slido logo and a "Present with Slido" button. Below this, it shows the "Assigned interaction" as "Open text". The question from the slide is repeated: "What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you hear 'Climate crisis?'". There is a text input field labeled "Type your answer ..." and a green "SEND" button. At the bottom, it indicates "Voting as Rachel *".
