All about Mind-map.....

Who Has Coined the term

Mind Maps !!!!!

Sir Tony Buzan

The phrase 'mind mapping' was coined and popularized by British psychology author/educationist Tony Buzan.

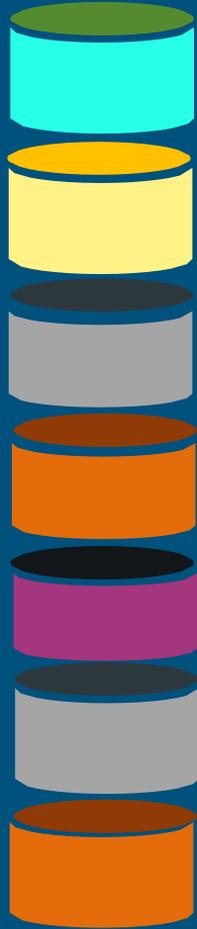

Buzan expounded the theory that the human brain works on imaging. For instance, when he mentioned the word 'mango' to his audience, all of them said it was the picture (of a mango) that first came to their minds. Buzan's thesis is that the brain works through radiant associations, colours, and multiple sensory linking.

The screenshot displays the Wondershare EdrawMind application interface. The title bar at the top reads "Wondershare EdrawMind". In the top right corner, there is a "Buy Now" button, a user profile icon, and standard window control buttons (minimize, maximize, close). Below the title bar, there are utility icons for "App", notifications, help, and a grid of icons.

The main area is titled "My Files" and contains a navigation bar with "Cloud", "Shared", and "Trash" tabs. A search bar labeled "Search files" is positioned to the right of these tabs, along with a green "New" button and a refresh icon.

A sidebar on the left side of the interface lists various actions: "Open", "New", "Cloud Documents" (highlighted with a blue box), "MindMap Gallery", "Save", "Save As", "Export", "Print", "Quit", "Account", and "Options".
